Trail of the Tiger

THEY WERE OUR FRIENDS

They made their friends by being one,
And on their friendship men relied;
In every deed that need be done
They made the Golden Rule their guide.
Their friendly presence brought a cheer
That made the day seem wondrous fair;
Their daily living so sincere
Made others love them everywhere;
They were our friends.

No task too great for them to do,
And in the doing was a smile
That aided as they carried through
The deeds that were so well worthwhile.
The brightness of their day is gone,
We see the setting of the sun;
If only we could carry on
And live a life like they have done!
They were our friends.

Just yonder on the star-kissed shore
They carry on in nobler way;
Though we can see their faces no more,
Thanks for their friendship for a day.
If on their tomb we could indite
The epitaph we have in mind,
One phrase is all that we would write,
The truest words that we could find:
They were our friends.

FLOYD JACK CARPENTER met with tragedy October 27, 1955, when the tie-rod in his car broke, overturning it in the ditch. A passenger in the car received only minor injuries.

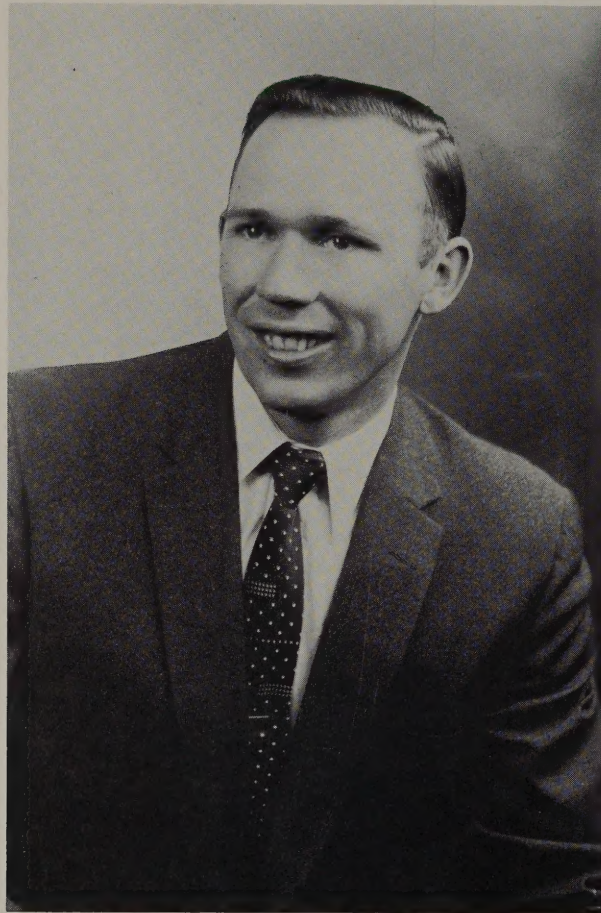

ROBERT JAMES BENSON was killed January 27, 1956 in an automobile accident which also took the lives of two other students, Dave Friend and George Gedos. The three boys were on their way to a basketball game in Spencer when the tragedy occurred.

JAMES EARL WILSON was killed while coming home from Medina after a basketball game February 9, 1957, when his car overturned. The only passenger with him was unhurt.

In Appreciation

To Mr. Weir:

Words cannot express our deep appreciation for the help and advice you have given us during our four years at Lodi High. Not only in our class projects but in our individual problems, you have taken an interest and offered wise counsel. Thank you so much for all you have done.

Sincerely,

SENIOR CLASS OF 1958

Class Prophecy

Dear Phyl,

July 25, 1983

We were so sorry you couldn't come to the reunion. I told the kids that you, the family, and the farm in Minnesota were all fine.

Eileen West now has her own skating rink in Lodi. She is teacher and owner.

Janice Hopkins and her husband have a Dairy Isle chain all over the United States and overseas.

Bonnie Brainard and Larry now own the Idol Restaurant and their 7 children wash the dishes, wait table and cook.

John Grimm is married and has his own basketball team. They are transported of course to the top cities by the JSG Trucking Company.

Betty McClain serves lunches to B & O engineers. Her house is next to the railroad.

Jim Miller has been married 6 times. He always seemed the lover boy type.

I went to Jo Portaro's before and after clinic and guess who did my hair, none other than Fred Eglin. He is the head beautician.

Pat Quillin is still looking for a man. Unbelievable, isn't it?

Betty Harris and Elsie Miller are airline hostesses with the new Fetherolf Airlines, owned by John, of course. Jim Lee is the mechanic for all the planes.

Have you heard that new record "Sandy" by Selvis Chesley. He is none other than our old pal, Gene High.

Linda Spellman owns the Lodi Shopping Center, and Carolyn Lance has a special school for humming.

I had the class reunion announcements printed at Don Dearth's printing shop.

Bill Hanes built a highway to Wooster for himself. I guess he wore out Route 76.

Barbara Schuur Byers and Richard now have their own sailing fleet.

Doug Thayer and Nick Varney own a nightclub business. Dancing girls and all.

Tom Phillips invented a new wonder drug for pigeontoos. It is sold Exclusively in Phillips Drug Store.

Pat Skidmore drives the Lafayette students to the Cloverleaf School.

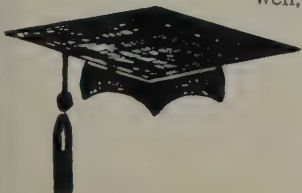

Darlene Harris is a model for the Big Payoff program in New York. That new slim, tall look is all the rage.

Bill and his brothers, (the Grim Bros.) are doing a fine business with a 500 cow dairy.

Phyllis Kitzmiller Grim and Chuck live right beside our house. Our family is real well, and so is the farm.

Well, write soon, and we'll try to come out sometime soon.

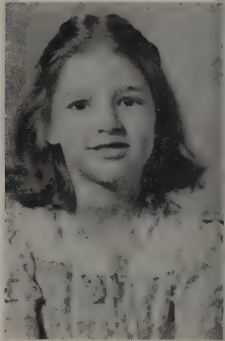

Love,
Beth

Class History

It was a great day in the history of Lodi School, when the Class of '58 joined the ranks, Mrs. Fuller was overjoyed to greet 32 angelic faces and even more overjoyed to see Miss Loomis (now Mrs. Hutton) greet us the next year. Those were our healthier years, with generous doses of figs, milk, cod liver oil, and crackers, administered daily. "UGH." There were several budding romances, but none that lasted. Tom Phillips joined us this year.

One of the best remembered years in school was our third when we developed the arts of roller skating, sword fighting, with yard sticks, wrestling, and at all times making general nuisances of ourselves. We'd like Miss Parrot to know we enjoyed it, but we feel sorry for the rough treatment we gave her. We enjoyed greeting Bonnie Brainard this year.

A different kind of skill was acquired in the 4th grade taught by Miss Morton. We made bird feeders and waste baskets. We presented our first dramatic production THE FIRST THANKSGIVING, which was a great success.

We were big wheels next year away upstairs in Miss Cummins' room, the fifth grade, this year we were introduced to our sixth grade teacher, Mrs. Harmon, who very patiently?? taught us to write properly. The next year we really toed the mark, and almost all of us received perfect grades in all subjects. We (even the boys) were very skilled in huck toweling embroidery. We met Fred Eglin, Betty McClain, and Carolyn Lance in the fifth grade and Linda Spellman in the sixth.

We felt tremendously important when we arrived in the high school building as seventh graders. Our actions must have been frightful, as they caused Miss Wilhelm to shed so many tears of discouragement. This is when we began to be the most ambitious and prosperous class in the history of Lodi High School.

In the following year Mrs. Schafer prepared us for our entrance into high school. Oh boy, we were really prepared. Betty Harris joined us in the eighth grade.

The Chatham and Lafayette pupils entered our class in our Freshman year - Bill Grim, Doug Thayer, Elsie Miller, and Pat Skidmore. Jim Lee also became one of us.

Under Mr. Weir's wonderful leadership we continued to prosper, and were glad to learn that he was to stay with us until we graduated.

In our Sophomore year, we were saddened by the automobile accidents, which caused the tragic loss of two of our classmates, Jack Carpenter and Bob Benson, who will be remembered throughout our lives.

Our Junior year brought sorrow again, in another tragic death, that of Jim Wilson, in an automobile accident which brought to an abrupt end, the life of one of the best students in our class. We have missed his fine mind and vital personality very much.

-----Our first class play-----was a frightening success, as you can see from its title THE SKELETON WALKS. Some fun! We received Gene High, Jim Miller, and Phyllis Kitzmiller, in our Junior year, and Barbara Schuur and Nick Varney in our Senior year.

The vital statistics from our Senior year shows us that our list of class members has grown much shorter lately. This fact is caused by nothing less than the peal of wedding bells. Yes, Esther Bates, Beverly Darr, Eleanor Crittenden, Nancy Miller, and Joyce Ferguson, are now housewives at home. We miss them, but wish them every happiness in their new careers of homemakers. No teachers to please, no assignments to prepare!

Barbara Schuur and Phyllis Kitzmiller also married but remained with us to graduate.

We had a lot of fun with WE SHOOK THE FAMILY TREE, another great dramatic production of the Class of 1958. Our annual has required much work, and even more prodding by our capable editor, Janice Hopkins, but we have finally finished it. All of us who went on our Senior Class Trip to New York, really had a wonderful time.

Mr. Weir has been our sponsor and counselor for our last four years in school, and what a fine one he has been! We have been slow in telling you how much we appreciate your guidance, Mr. Weir, but please accept this expression of our thanks, here in our yearbook for all to read.

From the 32 who started: Beth Benson, Jan Hopkins, Phyl Woodward, Darlene Harris, Eileen West, Pat Quillin, John Grimm, John Fetherolf, Don Dearth, and Bill Hanes, have proceeded through all 12 years together.

Last Will and Testament

ARTICLE I

- I, Beth Benson, will my ability to get a tall boyfriend to Glynice Hein.
- I, Bonnie Brainard, will my good?? report card, and my five study halls (except on Monday and Wednesday) to Buzzy Brainard who already has a good start.
- I, Barb Byers, will my bobby pins to Dee Barnes so she can pin up her hair every night.
- I, Don Dearth, being of sane mind and strong body leave my great hunting skill to Bruce Pope.
- I, Fred Eglin, will my ability to sing to Bill Palmer - who needs it.
- I, John Fetherolf, will my ability to do something wrong just as the teacher walks into the room to Tom Underwood.
- I, Bill Grim, will my height to Larry Buttolph, so that he can clean the windows --- next year.
- I, Phyllis Grim, will my rings to Bonnie Miller in hopes she'll have some of her own to wear someday.
- I, John Grimm, will my size 12½ basketball shoes to Jill Leggett, in hopes she can make the future girls' basketball team.
- I, Bill Hanes, will my ability to go with Wooster girls to Tom Underwood and Tom Heffelfinger who already have a head start.
- I, Betty Harris, will my getting in early to Lauretta Samsa who needs it.
- I, Darlene Harris, will my height to Jill Leggett, who could use a little more.
- I, Gene High, will my football shoes to Bernie Baker, so that he will have a good foundation under him.
- I, Jan Hopkins, will my privilege to have Mr. Wood do a curtsy with me, to anyone who wants to get a C in Government.
- I, Carolyn Lance, will my great one-tune humming ability to anyone who likes humming.
- I, Jim Lee will my ability to go to the Bookmobile first in Mr. Spechalske's 3rd period study hall to Tom Heffelfinger.
- I, Betty McClain, will my 5 years of being a majorette to Joanie Wilson.
- I, Elsie Miller, will my quietness to Niti Darr who needs it.
- I, Jim Miller, will my quiet and sleepy ways in Mrs. Dowdell's 8th period study hall to Max Farnsworth.
- I, Pat Quillin, will my ability to behave in government class to Linda Vanasdale, who will need it when she is a senior.
- I, Tom Phillips, will my white shoe polish, in hopes that he will use some on his white bucks, to John Hanes.
- I, Pat Skidmore will my ability to do Shorthand and Bookkeeping to my sister, Loretta Skidmore, who will sure need them.
- I, Linda Spellman, will my ability to talk in Mrs. Dowdell's study hall and get caught to Niti Darr.
- I, Doug Thayer, will my ability to laugh at Mr. Wood's jokes to Dave Whinery.
- I, Nick Varney, of empty mind leave to the students of Lodi High School the books that make you study and the uncomfortable seats that you have to sit in, the teachers that gripe at you and all the troubles you may get into, also the quiet ways of a senior.
- I, Eileen West, will my skating ability to anyone who has the nerve to try it.
- I, Phyllis Woodward, will all my pictures of Tab Hunter to Judy Devoe in hopes she has as much fun with them as I have.

ARTICLE II

To Mr. Wood we leave pleasant memories of his last government class and our best wishes for his success as Superintendent of Cloverleaf Schools.

To Mr. Skurvid we leave a substitute for Linda Spellman, to keep things jumping while driving in Driver Training Class.

To Mrs. Spirek we leave the pleasure of having no one ask to use the phone anymore, because there is a pay telephone in the corridor.

To Mr. Weir we leave a new freshman class in the hope they will like him as well as we do. (We know they will.)

To Larry and Joe we leave all the halls and rooms which will look very lonely after we leave.

To the cooks we leave a quieter cafeteria and all that food. (uneaten)

To Mrs. Bower we leave an automatic seating chart that takes attendance quickly in study hall.

To Mr. Burton we leave some ear plugs for the class trip so the kids next door won't keep him awake.

To Mrs. Dowdell we leave Senior English Class and all the arguments about who was late and who wasn't.

To Mr. Dunham we leave all the junior boys, who, without the seniors, wouldn't have taken second place in the tourney.

To Mr. Fissell we leave Larry Funk in hopes he will someday be able to learn to play the tuning-up note.

To Mr. Frick we leave all the Freshman boys who are always late to class.

To Mr. Graff we leave the orchestra which was fortunate this year not to have seniors in it.

To Mrs. Grimm we leave her continued interest in the health of the 7th, 8th, and 9th grade girls.

To Mrs. Hastings we leave some Blem to cover up the scratches the seniors made in the new sewing machines.

To Mrs. Hobart we leave all our used gum which we have stored under the seats in the music room.

To Mrs. Hocker we leave our forgotten typing paper, shorthand notes, pens, typing erasers, arguments and outlined lessons.

To Mr. and Mrs. Hunter we leave Annabel and all her exciting experiences we've heard so much about.

To Mr. Morris we leave all the art work in case he plans to start an art gallery.

To Mrs. Romick we leave a megaphone so that she will not tear her lungs out.

To Miss Sechrist we leave a supply of heel plates so that everyone will be sure to hear her coming down the hall, if they can't now.

To Mr. Spechalske we leave a charge account at a haberdasher's shop so he can have a new hat after each football game.

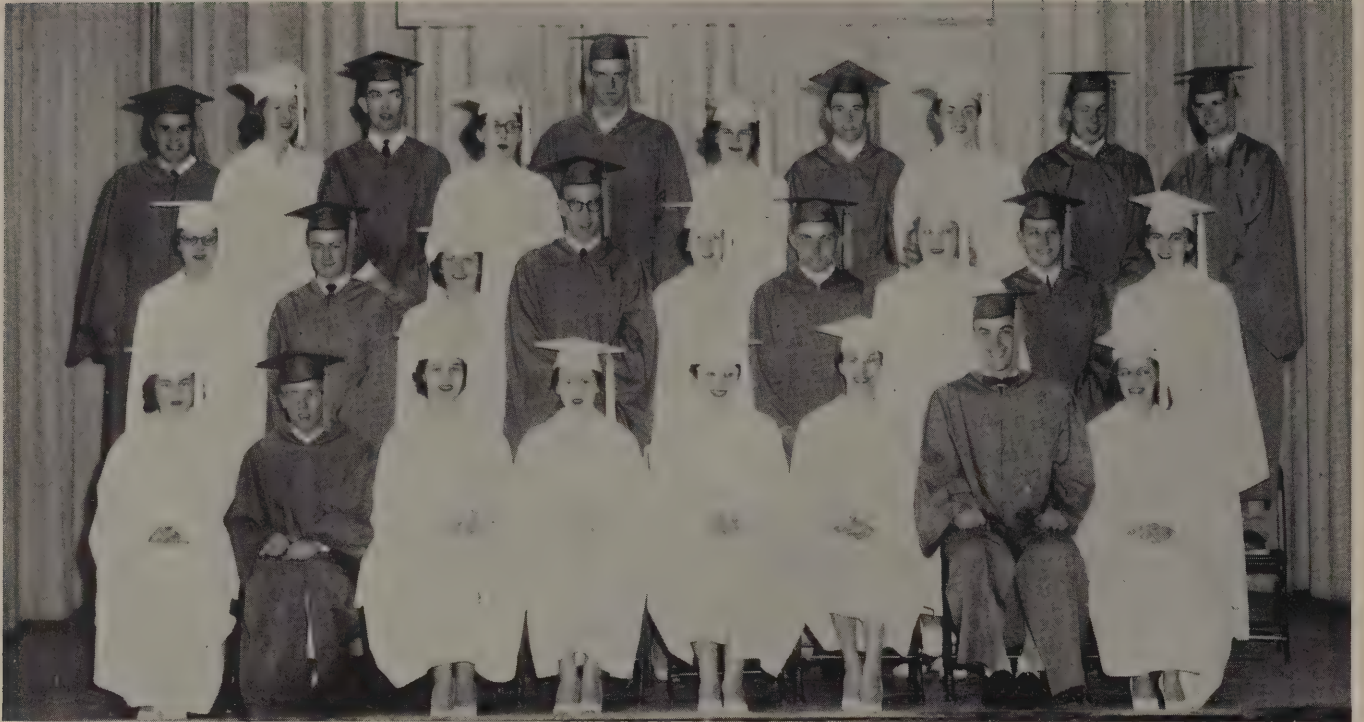

ARTICLE III

To the Juniors we leave our memories of a wonderful class trip, hoping that they will enjoy theirs as much as we did, and our government books, (it seems they have never been used in the last 21 years.)

To the Sophomores we leave our ability to get along with each other, at least until we became seniors.

To the Freshmen we leave our ability to raise money, so they may become a prosperous class in the future.
